Grass lease auction at Jakkur Aerodrome will be held at $\frac{1}{8}$ mile of Bangalore-Devanahalli-Bagepally Frontier Road, Jakkur Aerodrome at 10 A.M. on 20th September 1946 by the undersigned or his authorised representatives on the following conditions.

(1) Intending bidders should deposit Rs. 100 each, with the Executive Engineer, Bangalore Division, or his representative at the time of bidding. This deposit of the successful bidder will be held as reserve in addition to the amount of the bid at which the auction sale has been confirmed. The deposit amount will be refunded in the end after the lease contract is faithfully carried out.

(2) The right of cutting and taking the grass will be given away to the highest bidder at the auction.

(3) The lease of the grass in the Aerodrome area extends only up to 30th June 1947.

(4) The grass in the Aerodrome area should be cut and removed by the party and no grazing will be allowed.

(5) The grass should not be allowed to grow more than 9" in height during the period of lease, if, however, the party fails to cut and remove the grass at 9" height, the Department reserves the right of getting this work done by others and recover the cost from the tenderer.

(6) The contractor or his representative should enter the premises daily only on the permission of the watchman employed by the department.

(7) The grass should not be cut on the metalled runaway and 150 feet on either side of it.

(8) The grass should not be cut during the demonstration days and the party must leave the Aerodrome at any time whenever instructions are issued to him to do so. No reason can be given for such action.

(9) Full amount of the knocked down bid has to be paid on the spot and receipt obtained. The deposit amount will be arranged to be refunded to him later on as per regulation.

(10) The successful bidder should bind himself to abide by these rules and execute mutchalika in these terms. If he varies with these rules subsequently the deposit money paid by him will be forfeited to the Government.

(11) The contractor should provide himself at his expense with all the necessary tools and make his own arrangements for cutting, and removing the grass. The premises must be kept neat and tidy as required by this department.

(12) The tender amount will be returned only on the expiry of the term of lease, but no interest can be paid on the amount tendered.

(13) The cut grass should immediately be removed and should on no account be allowed to be deposited in the area.

(14) The area on which grass is grown should on no account be used for any other prupose nor damaged.

(15) For any loss or damage to the grass grown there the department is not responsible.
